Stratton Denies Leopold Bid For Freedom, Holds Out Hope For Parole

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois Tuesday denied thrill-slayer Nathan Leopold any early unconditional release from prison.

Stratton left to Leopold, 52, the regular parole channels as his only hope for leaving concrete-walled Stateville Penitentiary before 1968, when he would be eligible for release with maximum allowance for "good time" under his 85-year sentence.

The prisoner, informed of the action by Warden Joseph E. Rogen in Stateville Prison, took the news calmly and told reporters, "I don't have anything to say."

But he will have a news conference in the prison Wednesday.

He announced later through his attorney, Elmer Gertz, that he plans to file for rehearing of his 1933 parole application before the September meeting of the Parole and Pardon Board.

Turned Down 3 Times

Leopold has been turned down three times on parole bids since he became eligible to apply in 1933. Gov. Stratton pointed out that Leopold can try again any time, but made no promises.

NATHAN LEOPOLD

"If in the opinion of the members of the Parole and Pardon Board, a rehearing is warranted," Stratton said, "his name will be placed on a subsequent docket for hearing and then further consideration will be given his case on the question of his possible release on parole under supervision in community life."

Pilot, 18, Killed Trying To Land

PALMYRA, Wis. (AP)—An 18-year-old pilot attempting to land at the local airport was killed late Tuesday when he overshot the runway and crashed behind the high school. His girl friend witnessed the crash.

Killed was Ronald Selkirk of Delavan, who had been checked out on cross-country flights. He was alone in the rented, single-engine plane.

Police Chief Lee Dutton said Selkirk had taken off earlier from Janesville and flew to Palmyra to pick up his girl friend, whose name was not available.

She related that he came down too fast and when he attempted a pull up the plane's landing gear caught in barbed wire fence surrounding the airport, and then tumbled with a length of wire trailing from the wheels.

Selkirk flew over the high school, quarter of a mile from the airport, and crashed in an open field when he was unable to get back to the landing field. The plane narrowly missed two private homes as it crashed.

When Leopold first applied for parole, it was denied, and his case was scheduled for reopening in 1965. The board refused twice since then to reopen the case.

Parole Not Involved

The governor's action on Leopold's plea for executive clemency actually turned down the prisoner's proposal that the 85-year term be cut to 64 years. The issue of parole was not involved in Stratton's decision. Had Stratton granted clemency, Leopold with maximum credit for good behavior, would have gone free in December.

State law provides that prisoners must be freed after serving half their prescribed terms plus 15 months if good time is earned. Leopold was sentenced in September, 1934.

The clemency pleas were based on Leopold's contention that he (Continued on Page 13)

Hold Five Guards Hostages In Rioting At Montana Prison

DEER LODGE, Mont. (AP)—Rioting Montana prison convicts held five guards hostages Tuesday and shouted that if National Guardsmen entered the prison "You'll pack out some dead prison guards!"

It was the first threat of actual violence of some 500 convicts who began rioting in the prison yard Tuesday afternoon.

Nearly 200 armed guardsmen and other peace officers were poised for a pre-dawn assault on the rioters.

Prison officials disclosed that the guardsmen and peace officers would go in at 3:30 a.m. (MST) in a surprise thrust to break up the riot which burst out in the prison yard.

Six Who Attended Youth Conference Had Asiatic Flu

CHICAGO, (AP)—Scientists at a Chicago laboratory Tuesday said they have found evidence of Asiatic flu in blood specimens of 12 individuals who entered Illinois last month.

Rhonda A. Morrissey, head of the Illinois State Laboratory of Disease and Research, said six of the specimens came from 10 unidentified boys and girls who were stricken after attending a religious youth conference at Grinnell, Iowa.

Morrissey said four of the specimens definitely contained the Asiatic flu virus. The other eight specimens were probable cases of the flu, he reported.

The virus has created a flu epidemic in Asia this year and has been reported in scattered sections of this country.

Dew Line Ready For Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—North America's air warning system was extended to a 3,000-mile radar chain across the Arctic fringe of the continent Tuesday. The Air Force pronounced the Dew Line ready for operation.

The Dew Line, so named in a contraction of the words "distant early warning" was begun late in 1954. It stretches from western Alaska across the upper rim of the continent, through Canada to Baffin Island. The line is actually a series of radar posts isolated from each other in the northern wastes except for electronic connections.

The information fathomed by these electronic devices will be relayed through an elaborate chain of automatic and semi-automatic relay points to the Continental Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, Colo., and to the Canadian Air Defense Command headquarters at St. Hubert, Quebec.

Morse Blocks Move To Delay Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Morse of Oregon, demanding a showdown on the civil rights bill, Tuesday blocked a Senate move to lay the measure aside temporarily and dispose of other legislation.

The Senate cannot sidetrack the bill without the unanimous consent of its members. Morse, a Democrat, refused to go along with a unanimous consent agreement proposed by Majority Leader Johnson (D-Tex.).

"This is no time for retreat!" Morse shouted. "The demand across America is that we act!"

Johnson and Minority Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) sat listening glumly to Morse's speech. Unless some kind of an agreement is reached to let the Senate handle other legislation, the Defense and Agriculture Departments will be without legal authority to spend funds after Wednesday.

Morse agreed that failure of the Senate to act on the backlog of legislation might cause some difficulty, but he said, "protecting the rights of freedom sometimes is costly." Morse favors a strong civil rights bill.

A delay of a few days or even a few weeks on the other legislation, he said, "will not cause this nation to topple."

The Senate has been debating the civil rights issue almost exclusively for more than three weeks.

U.S. Atomic Powered Ship Expected By '60

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States expects to have its first atomic powered passenger-cargo ship ready for sea in 1960. It will be capable of steaming 350,000 miles on one charge of nuclear fuel.

The government issued the timetable for the 42½-million-dollar project at a roundtable meeting Tuesday with representatives of the maritime industry.

Officials of the Maritime Administration, Atomic Energy Commission and Commerce Department submitted the specifications for the 21,000-ton ship. The vessel will be sent to foreign ports as a demonstration of this country's effort to turn atomic energy into peaceful channels. Later the ship will be put in commercial service.

The government representatives emphasized that the sleek, modernistic passenger-cargo carrier will be only a test vehicle.

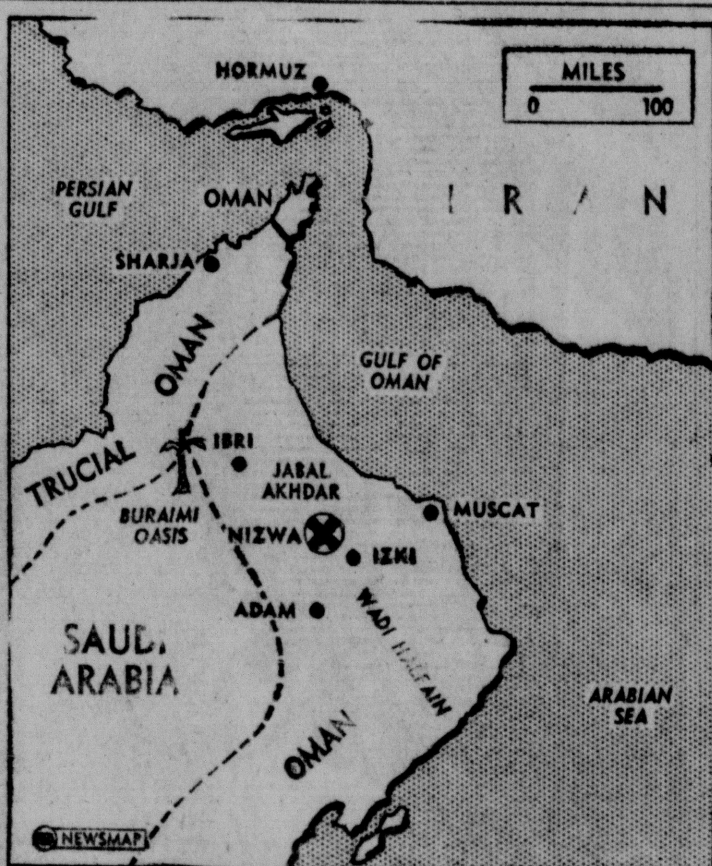

Primarily, it will have two functions: To try out reactor and hull designs, and to give some clue for later use by the shipping firms of the actual cost of operation of an atomic powered commercial craft.

The atom ship probably will be operated by the government under contract with one or more of the regular shipping lines.

In this first, experimental ship, no effort to provide superspeed is being made. The plans call for about 20 knots, similar to the speed for a comparable sized conventional ship with the same 20,000 shaft horsepower.

Specifications for the nuclear ship are: Length 587 feet, beam 78 feet, draft 29 feet, six inches; 20 staterooms for 60 passengers; and a crew of 130.

OMEN FOR GOOD OR ILL?—Newsmen locate the sun-seared, oil-rich territory of Oman, where activities of insurgents seeking to oust the Sultan of Muscat and Oman has caused Britain to back up British-occupied Trucial states with ground troops and air support. In their initial drive, insurgents captured the one-time capital of Oman, Nizwa. Ownership of Buraimi Oasis has long been disputed by the British-supported Sultan and Arabia's King Saud. British newspapers have voiced speculation that the situation might be one of the matters Secretary of State John Foster Dulles may take up with British leaders during his attendance at the London disarmament talks now going on.

West To Offer Soviet Up-To-Date Open Skies Plan

LONDON (AP)—Western diplomats agreed Tuesday night to offer Russia shortly an up-to-date version of President Eisenhower's open skies plan for guarding against surprise attack.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles won approval by representatives of three somewhat hesitant allies—Britain, France and Canada—for this move to promote the plan which Eisenhower first advanced at the Geneva Big Four summit conference two years ago.

Dulles also won their approval of continuing the slow negotiations with the Soviet Union in the five-power subcommittee of the United Nations Disarmament Commission. After four months of largely futile talk, that subcommittee has to report to the parent body Thursday.

Western officials said no new plans were decided upon in a 41-hour meeting among the four Western disarmament delegations which Dulles attended.

The strategy session was called specifically to enable Dulles to consult about the next steps with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, French delegate, Jules Moch and Canadian delegate David Johnson.

Dulles, along with U.S. delegate Harold Stassen, arranged to get together with their colleagues again Wednesday.

Dulles, who flew to London Monday at Eisenhower's request to appraise the prospects for a limited disarmament accord with Russia, has not arranged to meet privately with Valerian Zorin, the Soviet delegate. Zorin has not asked to see Dulles.

Dulles Monday stressed the importance of the Eisenhower plan to open huge chunks of territory in the East and West to sky inspection.

Kohler Leads GOP Race For Senate Nomination

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A tremendous surge of big city votes swept former Gov. Walter J. Kohler Jr. into the lead Tuesday night in a tight Republican race to nominate a successor to the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

With 3,051 of the state's 3,361 precincts reporting—including 444 of Milwaukee County's 633—Kohler recorded 82,130 to 80,173 for former Rep. Glenn Davis. Davis had led most of the way, after overcoming an early lead by Rep. Alvin O'Konski, whose third-place tally was 58,542.

William Proxmire apparently won the Democratic nomination, 77,479 to 40,233 for Rep. Clement Zablocki, also in 3,051 of 3,361 precincts.

Kohler, an early Eisenhower backer, campaigned as a supporter of the President. He was the only candidate to back Eisenhower's full program. Davis was critical of the administration's foreign policy and O'Konski was bitterly critical of nearly all the President's program.

The controversial career of McCarthy, who died May 2, never became a major issue in the campaign.

British Jets Strafe Fort Farq

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP)—British jet fighters strafed Ft. Farq Tuesday in the air war against tribal rebels seeking to unsettle the Sultan of Muscat and Oman.

Pilots reported the tower of the fort, in the south of Oman, was damaged in the attack with rockets and 20 mm. cannon. There appeared to be no resistance. Leaflets containing a warning to keep away from the fort had been dropped in that vicinity Sunday.

A communiqué said 10 planes, operating from Sharja airstrip, took part in the attack on the fort. Similar strikes were made yesterday at other rebel positions.

The air action supplements ground operations by troops and tribesmen loyal to Sultan Said bin Taimur, and is intended to crush the 12-day-old rebellion.

These forces were defeated on the opening day of the revolt by rebel faction of a Moslem religious leader, Imam Ghaleb bin Ali, who wants to set up an independent sultanate in Oman. The Sultan has a treaty of alliance with Britain.

Threat Of Racial Violence Appears To Be Subsiding

CHICAGO (AP)—The threat of new flareups of racial violence appeared to be subsiding Tuesday on Chicago's South Side. Extra police moved watchfully through the troubled area.

Mayor Richard J. Daley held a two-hour meeting at City Hall with the city's five Negro aldermen, other Negro leaders, city officials and three persons who attended a picnic at Calumet Park Sunday where the first outbreak occurred.

The mayor pledged that the rights of all citizens would be protected and said "the entire resources of the city government will be used to stop this type of violence."

"It is obvious," Daley said following the conference, "after hearing all the people here, that more programming through the (Chicago) Human Relations Commission and Park District and city police would have prevented what happened at Calumet Park."

Police, meanwhile, applied pressure on crowds and immediate clampdowns on any outstanding troublemakers during the day.

Thomas V. Lyons, chief of the uniformed force, ordered all East Side district police to remain on their present shift Thursday instead of rotating to another shift as is normal on the first day of each month.

Reports of violence continued to trickle in. One Negro said a flaming rag and stones were tossed at his auto as he drove to work Monday night. He escaped injury.

Porter Anderson and Ben Han, both of Muskegon, Mich., said a large group of white persons smashed the windshield of their car and dented the fenders with stones as they drove on the South Side.

Mayor Proclaims 'Jacksonville Day' Thursday, Aug. 1

The robust handshake of Milton Birdsell, president of the fair board, and Mayor Robert A. DuBois symbolizes the close cooperation of city and rural people that assures a successful 1957 Morgan County Junior Fair.

A moment before the mayor had signed a proclamation stating Thursday, Aug. 1, is "Jacksonville Day at the Fair." Most of the stores will close at noon, with grocers staying open until 1 p.m., and cooperating merchants and their employees will go to the fair.

A strong four-event racing card starting at 1:30 p.m. will feature the Jacksonville Day program. An exceptionally talented society horse show will begin at 7:30 p.m.

There are more than 70 race horses here to compete for the $9,000 in prizes and trophies offered by the fair board. And there are more than 200, an all time record, entries in the society horse show, which will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

There are more than 200 horses and ponies, a record number, entered in the society horse show, which will run Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The fair will end Sunday with matinee and evening performances of Pee Wee King and company, nationally known TV, radio and recording celebrities. King will feature Andy Doll and his townies, Little Ellen Long—long time radio personality—Donna Kaye and other entertaining specialists.

The fair will get underway Wednesday with the judging of dairy cattle, poultry and rabbits, garden and agricultural products, flowers, textiles and fine arts, foods and amateur photography.

Wednesday evening's program in front of the grandstand will lead off with a public wedding. The fair committee, headed by Willard Cody, isn't saying who the young couple will be. He (Continued on Page 13)

CORN, BEAN CROPS SLOWER THAN USUAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Illinois corn crop generally is half instead of three-fourths tasseled and, at an average height of five feet, is a foot shorter than usual.

The State-Federal Agriculture department said Tuesday corn is doing best in the northwest part of the state and is most variable in quality and late in the state's lower quarter.

Soybeans are about in the same stage of progress. Fifty per cent are starting to bloom. A few early fields have podded.

Cultivation is needed for corn and soybeans below midstate. Combining of oats is practically finished except in the northern quarter.

CAN ANIMALS PREDICT QUAKES?

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Can animals predict earthquakes? The keepers at the Chapultepec Zoo say yes.

Almost 24 hours before Sunday's big quake here, elephants, giraffes, lions, tigers and several other caged animals came down with the shakes.

Veterinarians diagnosed the animals' trouble as emotional or nervous disorders and admitted at the time that they had no idea what caused the disorders.

Gen. MacArthur Says Tax Burden Could Socialize U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—The American people are carrying a tax burden which could eventually socialize the United States, Gen. Douglas MacArthur said Tuesday.

Addressing the annual meeting of Sperry Rand Corp. stockholders, MacArthur said taxes now take more than one-third of what the average American citizen earns in a year.

"Our tax take is already greater than that of the admitted national socialist countries, whether on this or the other side of the Iron Curtain," declared the Sperry Rand chairman. "The effects may not yet be fully evident to the superficial eye, but the erosion of incentive, ingenuity and integrity that results will be as deadly as a hidden cancer is to life. It can in time change the basic character of this nation."

Rising prices, inflated living costs and loss of individual freedoms, MacArthur said, all stem from what he called oppressive, exorbitant and confiscatory taxes being levied by federal, state and local governments in this country.

"If we want economic liberty—want to be free to work most productively and to have what we produce—our concern must focus on the tax roots to shut off the revenue which nourishes the disease," he asserted.

"To work at the other end and merely bemoan the detailed projects of socialism or damn the persons who happen to be manning those projects at the moment, or even to change political personnel, would be about as effective in stopping socialism as changing underwriters would be to stop death."

MacArthur said the U.S. economy today is governed by the federal budget, and "the national budget is but the guesswork of a small group of individuals, temporarily gathered in Washington by administrative assignment, whose previous training and experience has little to do with acquiring any specific knowledge of the nation's need."

Answer To Zhukov-II

When Marshal Zhukov told President Eisenhower that communism appeals to the idealistic because it allows people to sacrifice themselves to the State, he spoke of a theory that has no link with the facts of life in the Soviet Union.

Despite decades of effort and concealment of the truth by the distortions of propaganda, the Russians have not been able to hide from the world how a Communist government works in real practice.

It is a dictatorship wounded on ruthless coercion of the people. It is arbitrary rule. Decisions are handed down from the top and must be obeyed without question. The people neither debate nor take part in these choices. Their criticisms never touch policy fundamentals but are limited to details of policy execution.

After nearly 30 years of Communist rule in Russia, we have no measurable evidence that Soviet citizens selflessly sacrifice themselves to the State, and glory in this sacrifice. They wield to the all-powerful government because it monopolizes the means of coercion—and applies them with brutal disdain for human concerns.

In original theory, Communists argued that dictatorship would be a temporary phase, that a gradually re-educated people would develop habits of selfless cooperation which in time would end the need for arbitrary rule.

Early in the game, however, Lenin and other top Russian Reds saw the folly of trying to remake human nature. They thereafter accepted dictatorship as a permanent condition under communism.

Clearly, then, they accepted coercion as a necessary device. All thought that people could be brought to selfless sacrifice for the State, that they could find deep satisfaction in such yielding, was forgotten.

Thus when Zhukov told Mr. Eisenhower communism lured the idealistic because it gave them outlet for sacrifice, he spouted theory which his own civilian leaders long since had given up.

Possibly, being a soldier, he did not understand all that had transpired in the civilian realm. Too, a soldier is trained to accept subservience to firm authority as a good and necessary thing. The military is built upon a system of order maintained from the top.

On the other hand, the Russian military customarily gets far more political indoctrination than do soldiers in free lands. Zhukov in the mid-1940's may very well have understood thoroughly the facts of Soviet life.

The truth is that Russian leaders in all walks have sought continuously to perpetuate the idea of selfless co-operation in the programs and policies of the Communist state. But what was genuine theory at the outside has become gigantic fraud.

Nothing so sharply symbolizes the fraud as does the constant use of the phrase "people's government" to describe Red regimes which have nothing whatsoever to do with the people except to grind them in the dust.

By their nature Communist governments do not serve people but enslave them. The "State" is not an agency rooted in popular consent and sustained by popular cooperation. It exists as a mechanism to prolong and enlarge the power of Communist dictators.

Communism, not democracy, is materialistic. It is a system perfectly conceived to serve the materialistic needs of the seekers of great power.

The man at the top in the Kremlin—or his counterpart in other Red regimes—is truly the only kind of man on earth who can do as he pleases. And very little of what he does ought in fact to appeal to the idealistic.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—There are two periods in our history about which Americans are incurably romantic—the Gay Nineties and the Roaring Twenties.

Time has removed from the earth scene most of those old enough to relish the tang of a Gay Nineties, but millions are still alive whose youth coincided with those years of the Grasshopper between the end of the first world war and the beginning of the great depression—the so-called Jazz Age. And at the first tinkling notes of an old Irving Berlin tune, many will drop nostalgic tears in their beer.

There has been a great revival of interest in "the Jazz Age," and many of today's serious, security-minded young people are inclined to ask rather crossly, "What was that so wonderful about it anyway?"

What they missed is movingly told in "The Lawless Decade," by Paul Sann, executive editor of the New York Post, and George Hornby, a big bountiful prose and pictorial saga of the era of prohibited booze and the uninhibited flapper.

It was the heyday of a generation which sometimes liked to call itself lost—and finally did get lost—but really merely liked to burn the candle at both ends, and live always on the edge of ecstasy.

It was a time when people tried to cure their own self-doubts by mumbing the message of Emile Coue, a French peace-of-mind sales man: "day by day in every way I'm getting better and better." That was the national credo: "everything is getting better and better." And things did keep getting better—until they fell apart all at once.

It was a time of liberty and license, of great literary experiment, of personal freedom, when there were still plenty of rules—but the rules were made to be broken. It was a time of great heroes—Gertrude Ederle, Charles Lindbergh, Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones, Bill Tilden, Red Grange, Clarence Darrow, H. L. Mencken.

And it was a time of terrible bums, including such gangster gentry as Al "Scarface" Capone and Dutch Schultz.

It was a time when the flapper tried to prove she could do anything a man could—but actually succeeded only in being the worst-dressed woman in the history of mankind.

The symbol of the Jazz Age was a lonely trumpet stuttering in a smoke-filled speakeasy. The word that describes it best is probably "excess."

It was a time when anyone who didn't plunge in Wall Street was a kisser. And it all came to an end after the October panic of 1929 started selling waves that wiped out 30 billion dollars in paper values. The depression was the hangover that followed.

In Hollywood

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frank Sinatra is one of the most publicized stars in show business history. Yet surprisingly little is known about his musicianship.

Top music men around town say musicianship is the main reason why Frank has outdistanced most of his competitors over the years.

Frank always conducts his own band, lately has even branched out, conducting albums for other singers, notably Peggy Lee.

Some music men believe that Frank has assembled a band that is a better musical aggregation than Glenn Miller or Tommy Dorsey ever had.

One Miller alumnus, who declines use of his name out of reverence to the famed maestro, believes the band that now backs Sinatra is better. He explains: "Frank is able and willing to pay for the best men in the business—and the best men are here. These men are top artists of the big band era who didn't deteriorate by drink, disease or disaster. Glenn, Tommy and the rest never had such a pool to pick from."

The movie and television industries have lured the cream of the nation's musicians. The reason: the pay is better, the hours shorter and there are no long bus rides between the tank towns.

Frank has two of the best arrangers in the business, Nelson Riddle and Gordon Jenkins, but it is Sinatra who adds the arrange-

"I want the best because I got spoiled early in my career working with Tommy Dorsey and Harry James. The musicians I work with now, I believe, are the greatest I've ever seen assembled in one band."

Congressional Feet Drag on Hoover Report Economies

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Congress is having difficulty making budget cuts that will stick and making new money appropriations over and above what the administration has asked for and this points up the fact that one field of real economizing is being almost completely neglected.

This is the reduction of government costs by application of the Hoover Commission recommendations.

Two years ago the second Hoover Commission made more than 300 recommendations for increasing government efficiency. To date, only 100 have been put into effect.

This year, only three Hoover plans have been fully approved by both houses of Congress and become law. Seven others have passed the Senate. About the same number have cleared the House. All the others are piled up behind the civil rights bill log jam. The chances for further action this year are considered slim.

SO DISCOURAGING is this situation that President Eisenhower has asked Congress to give him just five of the reorganization measures this year.

One of them extends Reorganization Act authority for another four years, so that something will get done eventually.

A second would give Congress annual review of the unspent, carry-over appropriations from previous years. They now amount to more than 70 billion dollars. This is roughly equivalent to what this year's budget will be. Congress has no control over this money, the way the books are kept now.

A third request is to abolish the postal savings system.

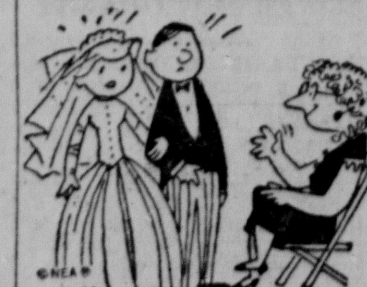

A fourth is to permit the government to train specialists in private universities.

The fifth is to remove from congressional review government agencies' authority to dispose of surplus real property.

Clarence Francis, chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Reports, points to several other Hoover Commission recommendations as offering great potential savings.

ONE IS to create a civilian-controlled Defense Supply and Service Administration to handle procurement of items which are used by all the armed services. This would eliminate duplication of buying and shipping.

A second proposal would create a Federal Council of Health which would consolidate the hospital services of a score of government agencies. They now compete with each other for doctors, nurses and medical supplies. Some hospitals are overcrowded while others are half-empty.

The third Francis priority recommendation is to make Congress give up its authority to prevent the closing of business-type operations run by government agencies.

Most of these businesses are now in the Defense Department. But over 700 of them have been closed or scheduled to close in the last two years. And more would be abandoned if Congress would give up its veto power.

NO DOLLAR TAG has been put on savings that could be made by carrying out these and the 200 other Hoover Commission recommendations. But Robert L. L. McCormick, research director for the Citizens Committee, has tracked down savings of 2.8 billion dollars which have been made as a result of carrying out some of the recommendations.

Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, says these are exaggerated estimates.

But one point fairly apparent is that few of these recommendations would cost the government any more money. And any reorganization which would result in greater government efficiency should in the long run pay off as government economy.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Cecil H. Underwood, in his search for a mental health director, interviewed a psychiatrist at his office because the doctor was too busy to come to the Capitol.

"And pretty soon," Underwood said, "the word was all over town that the governor had gone to a psychiatrist."

Thinking It Over—

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

A house constructed of stone appears to be more permanent than one made of wood or some other material. It is certainly better able to withstand the damage of wind or rain or even fire. It is also easier to maintain in its appearance than are frame dwellings.

Regardless of its solidity and beauty no empty house is a home. People add domesticity to the dwelling, but love and care must be added before a home exists. The presence of God as the invited guest and host of the family is necessary to give reality and permanence to the home.

Without God a family lacks the motivation and the desire to work and live together.

Study Older Women to Insure Happy Old Age

Every middle-aged woman ought to study older women so she can begin the self-discipline necessary to make her the kind of woman who meets old age with courage and good cheer.

If she looks and listens and tries to figure out why this older woman is happy and why that one is cheerless, she will learn more than she could in any other way about the art of living.

A few facts are sure to become clear to her as she studies older women.

One is that the happy older women "do" for themselves as long as they are able. They have an independence of spirit that keeps them from being leeches.

Another fact she will discover is that the happy older woman doesn't stubbornly resist change and talk about the good old days but accepts the world as it is and young people as they are.

She will also notice that the happy older woman overlooks disappointment instead of looking for it. She doesn't dwell on unpleasantness or expect too much of family or friends. She has a live-and-let-live philosophy that extends even to those who are near and dear to her. And always the really happy older woman has a deep religious faith.

STUDY UNHAPPY, TOO From the unhappy older woman she can learn a lot, too. She can learn what she must not do if she wants younger people to enjoy her company. If she wants to keep her friends and if she wants her life to be as rewarding as it was in her younger years.

Any middle-aged woman who will take the trouble to study both the happy and the unhappy older women she knows will be doing a great deal toward becoming a happy person in her own old age.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—This week's Senate fight on civil rights involves voting rights. But the argument is on whether a person charged with contempt of court should be tried by a judge or a jury.

This is an ABC on it. The civil rights bill proposes that when someone interferes with individuals' voting rights, the attorney general can ask a federal judge to issue an order to stop it.

The person disobeying can be charged with civil contempt or criminal contempt.

Roughly, this is the difference: Charging a man with civil contempt is intended not to punish him but to make him comply with the court order while there is still time.

The criminal contempt charge based on willful disobedience is intended to bring punishment after it is too late to comply.

Say Registrar Jones stalls on obeying a court order to register 100 Negroes. The attorney general tells the judge. Election day is still weeks away. The Negroes could still vote if Jones registered them.

The judge tries Jones for civil contempt and, finding him guilty, slaps him in jail for an indefinite period. Jones can get out as soon as he says he will obey the court order and register the Negroes.

But said Jones has stalled until after election day and that the attorney general then tells the judge. It's too late for the Negroes to vote now. The judge tries Jones now for criminal contempt.

If he finds Jones guilty he sends him to jail with a definite sentence. Jones now can't get out by saying he'll comply. It's too late for compliance. The election is over. Jones is simply being jailed as a punishment for disobeying.

But there's a point that should not be overlooked here: Say that Jones—with election day still weeks away—was jailed for civil contempt to make him obey the order while there are still time.

But suppose Jones, determined not to let the Negroes register, sits it out in jail until after election day, when it would be too late to register them, thus clearly refusing to obey the court.

The judge will have to release him after election day—but he can now try Jones all over again, this time on a charge of criminal contempt, to punish him for disobeying. This time he would give him a definite jail term.

Southerners, and their non-southern supporters, argue that a jury trial in a criminal action is so sacred that it must be guaranteed and preserved.

So they protest against the bill, demanding that it be amended to provide a jury trial—and not trial by judge alone—when a man is charged with criminal contempt.

They don't argue for a jury trial in civil contempt cases. Federal laws permitting it. There is some variation under state laws on whether—in criminal contempt—a man should be tried by judge or by jury.

The bill's supporters contend that a judge in voting rights cases should be able to try by himself and without a jury for both civil and criminal contempt. And for this reason:

The bill's purpose is to protect people's voting rights, not just to punish someone. Therefore its primary purpose is remedial and not punitive. But the judge should have the power, to strengthen the authority of his order, to punish anyone disobeying him.

The bill's supporters argue further: If a voting registrar reflects the attitude of his community—in not wanting Negroes to vote—he could disobey a court order until action is over, knowing he faces criminal contempt charges, but hoping a jury of his neighbors will acquit him.

He couldn't have such hope—and therefore such incentive to disobedience—if he faced a trial by the judge alone.

A Glance Into The Past

★ DR. JORDAN SAYS ★ Lymph Glands Swell in 'Cat-Scratch' Disease

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
AP News Service

A year or so ago I received a letter from the wife of a physician who wrote that in 1931 or 1932 both she and her husband developed an illness with fever and swelling of the lymph glands under the arms and in the groin.

Both had been scratched slightly by a cat, but at that time no diagnosis was made. It was in 1932 that a Cincinnati physician recognized a group of patients long suspected of having another disease which followed a cat scratch.

In the last few years hundreds of cat-scratch diseases have been reported from Europe and the United States.

NOT LONG AGO 160 cases were reviewed. These had occurred in 27 states and eight foreign countries. Twenty-seven of these had been studied by the authors of the report. Almost all of the patients had been in contact with cats and most of them had been actually scratched. In many instances, however, the scratch was so slight as to have been virtually unnoticed.

The symptoms of cat-scratch disease are rather typical. About three to seven days after the scratch the site of the scratch becomes somewhat inflamed. About two weeks later, the typical sign appears—enlargement of the lymph glands draining the area injured. In other words, if the hand was scratched, the lymph glands under the arm become enlarged. If it is the legs, then the lymph glands in the groin.

MOST PATIENTS afflicted with cat-scratch disease have fever. Some of them have general symptoms such as headache, weakness, aching or chilly sensations, as well as, the typical lymph gland enlargement.

Though the word centipede means 100-footed, some species have more legs than that and some only 30. On the action next to the head are two poison-bearing claws. The poison of most centipedes is harmless to man, though in the tropics there are species 8 to 10 inches long whose bite may be serious. Some centipedes shed light like a glow-worm. These are usually blind.

OFFICIAL DESPAIR—Territorial Sen. William H. Hill says he is getting pessimistic about Hawaii's chance for statehood.

"It seems statehood is always around the corner, then there is another corner, and there are so many that they are soon rounded off and now we're going in circles," he told an audience.

Try Mushroom Curry Sauce With Tender Cornish Hens

ROCK CORNISH hens are growing in popularity and are even more delicious when served with mushroom curry sauce.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor
Here's an attractive way to serve those increasingly popular plump and tender Rock Cornish hens.

Rock Cornish Hens (6 servings)
Six 1-pound Rock Cornish hens, 8-ounce package herb-seasoned stuffing, 2 tablespoons strained honey, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet.

Make stuffing according to package directions. Place stuffing in cavity of each hen, being careful not to overstuff, and fasten securely with a small poultry pin. Roast in preheated 325-degree oven approximately 1 hour or until internal temperature of 180 degrees is reached. Combine honey and kitchen bouquet and brush generously over hens 15 minutes before roasting is complete.

Mushroom Curry Sauce (2 cups)
Two chicken bouillon cubes, 2 cups boiling water, 6-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1/4 teaspoon rosemary, 1/4 teaspoon curry, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/4 teaspoon onion salt, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons cold water.

Dissolve bouillon cubes in boiling water in small saucepan. Drain mushrooms, add broth to bouillon and bring to boil over moderate heat. Combine and add rosemary, curry, cornstarch, onion salt, salt and water. Cook, stirring constantly until sauce is thick and clear. Add mushrooms and heat thoroughly. Remove from heat and pour into warm sauce bowl. Place in center of warm serving platter, arrange Rock Cornish hens around it and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Rock Cornish hens with mushroom curry sauce, small bowls of watermelon pickle, candied ginger and kumquats, steamed rice, mixed green salad, blackberries, cream, coffee, tea, milk.

Compromise Plan In Confidential Case Rejected

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Despite a warning from the defense that "reputations of many persons will suffer if this case goes to trial," the court has turned down a proposed compromise agreement in the criminal libel case against Confidential magazine.

Trial is slated to begin Friday. The proposed settlement was worked out Monday during a long meeting of the prosecution and the defense in the district attorney's office. It would have provided:

1. Confidential and its sister publication Whisper would stop printing smear articles against celebrities.
2. Charges against defendants Fred and Marjorie Meade, accused of supplying information about Hollywood figures to Confidential, would be dropped.
3. The case against the magazines and other corporate defendants would be decided on the basis of the transcript of the grand jury hearing in which they were indicted.

Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker, in rejecting the compromise, held insufficient reason had been given for dismissing the four conspiracy counts against the Meades.

GOP Solons From Illinois Ask Change In Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican House members from Illinois have asked that they be put next to the state's senators on the ballot as well as in the capitol.

A resolution drafted by Rep. Emmet Byrne (R-Ill.) and signed by his 13 colleagues urged the Illinois electoral board to change the place on the state ballot for House candidates.

Byrne said he is convinced that "one of the reasons the Republican Congressional candidates lost so many votes in the 1956 election is the misleading placement of candidates" on the state's ballot.

Byrne was the lone Illinois Republican to unseat a Democratic Congressman in the election.

His resolution asked that the candidates be listed at the top of the ballot, below the senatorial candidates. They now are listed near the bottom, below candidates for state offices.

He's shown here with Volo Yates, winner of the two year old pacer class held at the Fulton county fair last Sunday.

Other well known drivers who will bring their stables here for the added prize money include Jack Davis of Carrollton, Edgar Leonard of Lincoln, Earl Stevenson of Jerseyville, Howard Morris, Ernie Garrison, Roy Sheerburn, Dee Stover, Walter Burrus and Paul Fox of Springfield, and Doc Nelson of Canton.

Truck Turns Over In Blanket Of Fog

A 2½ ton flatbed truck loaded with gas well drilling equipment, flopped over on U. S. Highway 36-54 one mile west of Riggs Station at 4:45 o'clock Tuesday morning when the driver suddenly encountered a patch of fog.

Lee F. Oxley Jr., of Olathe, Kan., driver, escaped injury when the vehicle ran from the south side of the pavement, struck a culvert, and turned over. The machinery was scattered on the highway.

A patch of fog still shrouded the highway when officers arrived and took charge of traffic. State Patrolmen Edmund L. Heyer of Jacksonville and Charles Bestley of Winchester were called to the scene.

Brummett's wrecker from this city went to the place of the mishap, righted the truck, and towed it to the local garage.

The Kansas man was headed east at the time of the accident.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

Monday's statement of Allied policy regarding the future of Germany didn't mention it, but there's always one thing to remember.

The Western European Union was devised as a means of connecting a rearmament West Germany with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But that is by no means its only effect.

At the same time it gives the Allies the benefit of German military power in the general defense picture, it also gives them a check on that power to see that it shall not outstrip the community need and again become a threat to Europe.

There lies the bar to an Austrian-type settlement which some people have suggested might eventually be the solution for a unified Germany.

The Big Three and the Germans will not agree to a neutralized and disarmed Germany. Permanent disarmament for a nation such as Germany is impossible.

France and Britain, and presumably the United States, will not agree to an armed but neutralized Germany, as in Austria, because that would mean the end of the ability to limit her military strength to the community need.

France, Britain and the United States say they will leave it to a unified Germany as to decide whether it remains associated with NATO. That statement is based on the estimate that a unified Germany would be governed by the pro-Western majority in West Germany.

If time should undermine that estimate, however, and Germany should show signs of preferring neutralization, the Big Three would have to reassess their position.

France has made notable concessions since World War II in order to advance the cause of Western European unity, especially in the Saar matter. But there is no prospect that she will give up her checks on German militarism.

This, then, is always in the background when German reunification is under discussion, and will be a major factor in any negotiations with Russia such as are now suggested.

CURIOSITY LANDS MAN IN PRISON

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Heywood Butler is in Moyamensing Prison today because he's just natural curious.

Butler says he found a pair of handcuffs Monday while rummaging in the cupboard of an apartment he had recently moved into. Wondering if they worked, he snapped them on. They worked perfectly and Butler hadn't found a key either.

He went to the police station to have them removed. While a patrolman was getting handcuffs off, another policeman made a routine check of the records. It was found Butler hadn't paid a $25 fine given him in Municipal Court this week for carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Butler couldn't raise the money and is in prison until he does.

Hunter Grabs For Slipping Rifle, Injured

JERSEYVILLE—Donald Rudolph, 18 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Rudolph of the McCluskey vicinity was brought to the Jersey Community hospital about 5 p.m. Thursday suffering from a gunshot wound in the left hand.

According to reports from the office of Sheriff Herman C. Kirchner, Rudolph was accidentally shot while hunting groundhogs near his home Thursday evening. While passing through a gateway, the rifle he was carrying slipped and when he attempted to prevent its fall the weapon discharged and shot him through the left hand.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Elmore made the investigation for the sheriff's office and reported that the gun which was discharged was a .22 calibre, bolt action weapon and long type shells were being used at the time of the groundhog hunt.

Rudolph was treated surgically for the wound at the local hospital and was admitted as a patient for further treatment.

Prized Powder Horn

ASHLAND — At his home in Ashland, Richard Grogan stands beside a powder horn made by his grandfather in the early pioneer days in the Ashland vicinity. At that time, Mr. Grogan said, prairie chicken, wild turkey and pheasant were plentiful and the old muzzle loading shotguns were in use.

Mr. Grogan's great grandfather Grogan served under General Sam Houston during the Mexican War. He was killed by enemy fire when his company was attempting to aid Davy Crockett's band at the besieged Alamo.

Richard Grogan is employed at the Maplecrest Sanatorium in Jacksonville.

4-H Club Activities

A meeting of the Happy Workers 4-H Club was held on July 27 with the president presiding. The meeting was opened with the recitation of the pledge to the flag and the 4-H pledge led by Sheila Cress and Shirley Fernandes, respectively.

During the business session the girls were reminded of the Achievement day requirements for the completion of their projects. Then, each of the members were assigned duties to help make the club bake sale, held on July 27, a success. A report of the club's financial progress in the sale of dillies and salt and pepper shakers was made.

Shirley Fernandes was top salesman, selling 22 dillies and 19 salt and pepper shakers. All proceeds help to promote the club's Queen contest. Also, a club picnic held at Friday noon during Achievement days was planned.

The program followed. Annette Baptist gave a talk, "Garden Flower Corsages." Dresses were modeled by Caroline Willner, JoAnn Acree, Carol Ezard, Linda Ring, Shirley Fernandes, Mary Jane Acree, Marie, Martha and Betty Curtis, Anette Baptist, and Carolyn Ward. Skirts and scarfs were modeled by Margaret Curtis, Gloria Nash, Linda Brown and Sheila Cress.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostesses Sheila Cress and Shirley Fernandes. Guests were Mrs. Cress, Sandra Werner, Linda Fernandes, Doris Akers, and Mrs. Fernandes.

AMBITION REALIZED

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Jimmy Whyte of Pife, Scotland, a sailor on the British aircraft carrier Ark Royal, realized his ambition on the visit of his ship to this port.

Jimmy wanted to ride in an American police car with the lights flashing and sirens screaming. On his first night ashore he told police about it. He rode with two officers, S. E. Cherry and E. W. Farr. He liked it and they liked him, so Jimmy spent every night of his four-night liberty with them in the police car.

TWO RESIDENTS OF ROODHOUSE ATTEND FHA CAMP

ROODHOUSE—Mrs. Ross Manning and Miss Barbara Johnisse have returned from attending the FHA state leadership training camp sessions at East Bay camp, Lake Bloomington, where Mrs. Manning served as one of the 34 counselors. Barbara Johnisse, parliamentarian of the local FHA and a senior in the Roodhouse high school, was one of 530 delegates and adults to attend the camp.

The theme of this year's camp was "Participation Strengthens." General sessions were called to hear speakers and see demonstrations. Workshops and discussions followed in smaller groups of 12 to 20 young people with presidents of sections serving as leaders and with Mrs. Manning and other counselors serving in the capacity of consultants and cabin counselors.

Mrs. Manning also directed in chorus work and in some of the radio takes which were cut for 29 stations throughout the state. WLDS, Jacksonville, will present some of these cuts for area listeners in the near future. Mrs. Manning's chorus sang for the assembly for presenting awards and degrees to delegates who had earned them during the last year and for the installation ceremonies.

Barbara Johnisse, also participated as a member of work committees and in meetings for installing, presenting of the emblems and awards and in recreation periods. Among other sports enjoyed during recreation were swimming and boating.

Participation for every member for the coming year was one point most stressed in the state meeting for all FHA organizations in the state of Illinois.

RELIGION BY SENSATION

CHICAGO (AP)—Religious movements communicate their ideas in the language of sensation, Dr. Ira A. De Augustine Reid, sociology professor at Haverford, Pa., college, told a Disciples of Christ executive meeting here.

By the "light of symbols of religion," he said, believers "enter into darkness of social problems. The symbols are not the knowledge of reason. They are those of belief. The symbols tell us nothing, but they inspire and inspirit us. We believe in them at our own risks. We know this and we are not afraid."

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

DES MOINES (AP) — Big Jim Smith wishes the Army would make up its mind how tall he is.

The induction station said he was 6 feet 5 1/2 inches and thus eligible for the draft. So he quit his job, shipped his family's effects home to Peoria, Ill., sold his car and reported to Chicago for a draft physical.

The draft board measured him at 6 feet, 6 1/2 inches—too tall for induction. The Army's limit is 6-6. He was not inducted.

Cook cool in hot weather with a new automatic range!

On sizzling summer days, why slave over a hot old stove? Switch to a modern automatic range and discover how pleasant summer cooking can be.

From top burners to big ovens, cooking is fully automatic. Foods cook to tantalizing perfection—automatically—while you do what you like away from the kitchen. For example, automatic thermostats control top burners, maintaining the exact temperature you select. Every pot and pan you own becomes an automatic cooking utensil. Scorching? Never! Foods even keep warm for an hour or more without overcooking.

Ovens in the new ranges are truly automatic. Roasts cook to mouth-watering goodness—rare, medium, or well-done—without attention. In some models, a built-in thermometer tells you at a glance when meat is done—without opening the oven door and letting heat escape.

Yes, for cool summer cooking—and tastier meals, too—get a new automatic range.

Modeling Is Hard On The Feet

It took the judges quite a while to pick out the best dresses from the 260 shown by 4-H girls at Lincoln school last Friday, and this candid snapshot shows two contestants who shucked their shoes as they stand in the reviewing circle.

Six girls were chosen to model their clothing in the Illinois State Fair style revue. They were, from front, Nancy Heaton of the Murrayville Merry Maids; Darlene Wilson, Murrayville Merry Maids; Carol Anderson, Chapin Top Notchers; Mary Stewart, South Side Merry Maids; Nancy Hadden, Ebenezer Girls, and Connie Houston, Ebenezer Girls.

Three alternates to the state fair revue were also chosen and the clothing made by three other girls was chosen to be shown at the state fair and judged for construction.

The three alternates are, from front, Sharon Whitlock, Franklin Friendly Maids; Carolyn Ward, Happy Workers and Carolyn Williamson, South Side Merry Maids. The dresses worn by the next three girls will be sent to the fair to be judged. Shown above are Linda Young, Ebenezer Girls; Carol Hembrough, Asbury Girls, and Sandra Aufdenkamp, Chapin Top Notchers.

Nearly all of these girls have entries in the clothing division of the Morgan County Junior Fair and some of them are certain to be in the style revue that will be held in front of the grandstand Friday evening.

KOVACS ON BROADWAY?
NEW YORK (P)—Ernie Kovacs, cigar-chewing showman of television, may turn his attention next to the legitimate theater. The show which has been offered him to direct is strictly in line with his own off-beat approach to humor.

Entitled "Solomon Grundy," it is a musical comedy about a scientist who builds a machine that supposedly will create a human being who will live only seven days.

At the peak of the gold rush in 1900, Nome, Alaska, had a population of 20,000. Today its population is 2,000.

TALKED INTO JOB
NEW YORK (P)—Actor Karl Malden is a director now because Richard Widmark, his long time friend, got tired of listening.

"He told me to put up or shut up," grins Malden, explaining he got the assignment to boss "Time Limit," the first movie produced by Widmark. The film releases soon.

Malden, one of Broadway's busiest performers and the possessor of a Hollywood Oscar, has been eying the directorial chair for years but hesitated to make the switch.

Now he is convinced that an actor makes a good director "because he understands the performer's viewpoint."

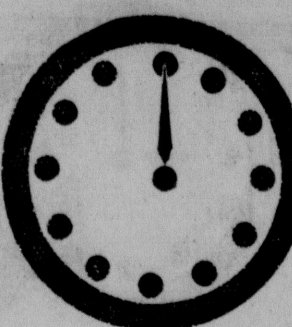

"I learned also as a director when to keep my mouth shut," adds Malden. "If you have to explain too much you find that the communication was faulty. Keep quiet, and nine out of 10 times it works out better."

BUDDHIST HOLIDAY
NEW YORK (P)—Buddhists in many lands celebrate a major holiday for their faith late this month—called "O Bon." It is an occasion when the spirits of the dead are believed to return to earth for a visit, and is marked with festivities and dancing in joy over the eternity of life.

DOG DAYS FOR DEANS
ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (P)—If your name is Dean, you had better stay away from the corner of Vermont Avenue and 15th Street here. A large yellow dog took a bite out of Charlie Dean and Ray Dean at different times one afternoon. The men aren't even related, Police Chief Clarence Walker said.

Leonard Wilson Public Relations Man For I.C.

President Caine of Illinois College has announced the appointment of Leonard L. Wilson as Director of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs.

LEONARD L. WILSON

A native of Nebraska, Mr. Wilson served in the Navy from January 1943 until November 1946. He was graduated from Hastings College in 1950 with a B. Hat-Rack Like Vertijet Zooms Straight Upward

WASHINGTON (AP)—A machine rose straight up in front of the Pentagon today on a searing jet blast, climbed rapidly and flew into the clouds.

The "Vertijet," an experimental craft sponsored by the Air Force and the Navy, was made in the presence of members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and air officials of all the military services.

The "Vertijet," manufactured by Ryan Aeronautical Co. was flown by the company's chief engineering test pilot, Peter F. Girard.

He took off from a contraption that looked something like a hat-rack. Under the nose of the plane, which when in level flight looks like a modern fighter plane, is a metal hook. Girard started with the hook over a metal rack at the top of a mobile platform, slowly backed his machine away, turned slowly, then gave it another push of power and took off at high speed.

Upon his return, Girard turned the aircraft's nose upward and slid down, then in that vertical position moved slowly toward the platform and hooked back onto the rack.

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—Fourteen business buildings burned in little more than an hour Monday night when a sudden fire roared through a block of the downtown section here.

Roads leading into this Marin County seat were blocked off as fire equipment from as far away as San Francisco, 15 miles south over the Golden Gate bridge, converged to fight the flames.

Recorders Offices In State Closed On Saturday By Law

Philip Bradish, circuit clerk and recorder of Morgan county, has received word of the passage and approval by Governor Stratton of Senate Bill 571, under which offices of recorders in all counties in Illinois are directed not to receive instruments for recording on Saturdays throughout the year.

Mr. Bradish said that he has consulted with State's Attorney Charles J. Ryan, and learned that the Attorney General has given his opinion on the matter of closing the recorder's office on Saturday, and that the provisions of the act are mandatory.

The provisions of the new act are now in effect. No deeds, mortgages, or other instruments usually filed in that office can be accepted for recording on Saturday.

Circuit Clerk Bradish said that his office as circuit clerk will remain open as usual during court house hours each Saturday, his duties as circuit clerk being separate from his duties as recorder.

FAST DRIVER ASSESSES OWN FINE, PAYS IT
ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP)—After reading the complaint, Police Magistrate Clifford W. Hobart asked the defendant Monday what the fine should be for a man driving 95 m.p.h. along a city street.

Donald Viera, 33, who was arrested on the charge Saturday, scarcely hesitated in answering: "I would make the fine $100 and costs."

Said Hobart: "You've just fine yourself."

Viera, who said he expected things might turn out that way, flashed the money from his pocket. His bill came to $106.40.

Daniel Fester, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fester of Route 1, Jerseyville, was given treatment at the Jersey Community Hospital Sunday afternoon following an accident at the Surgeon orchard near Grafton. Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—The Tigers seemed to be an exciting out at the Lakeland, Fla., training base last spring.

Jack Tighe, the tough-talking manager, had difficulty restraining himself when he spoke of the first major league club he was to handle. You got the idea that he felt sure not even the Yankees were going to kick it around.

You looked around and saw young fellows like Harvey Kuenn, Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Frank Bolling, Frank Lary and Billy Hoelt. You remembered two years before that "If I had a pick a future championship team, it'd be Detroit."

But here we are headed into August, and the Tigers are far off the pace set by the Yankees and White Sox, and Kuenn and Kaline have had difficulty buying base hits. There had been talk of front office grumbling. So, you expected to find Tighe, the fighting Irishman and freshman manager, teeming with rage and disappointment.

It is rather surprising therefore to get a highly optimistic report.

"Our trouble narrows down to the heartbeat of the club, Kuenn and Kaline, not hitting," says Tighe. "The pitching has been excellent. Kaline has started to hit and we know Kuenn will, and we're looking forward to the finish we made last year, when we won 46 of the last 70."

"We're 10 games better off than we were a year ago. Our paid attendance at home to date is 870,000, or 100,000 more than last year."

"No one has said a word to me about the failure of the club to climb higher. As a baseball man, Johnny McHale, the general manager, knows we are fortunate to be where we are with Kuenn and Kaline not hitting. I wish you'd write that we work for great people—John Fetzer, Harvey Hanson and Fred Knorr, the new owners."

Kuenn, who upped his average to .332 last season, is the deepest puzzle to Tighe.

"We can't see that he is doing anything different at the plate," explains the boss man. "The hits simply have not dropped for him."

"Kuenn switched to third base because he is a big fellow who lacks range at shortstop and we figured the move might help his hitting. But it didn't, and when Ronnie Samford failed to hit as the shortstop, we had to get Reno Berto's bat back into the order as the third baseman."

"Kaline stayed in his slump for a month and a half because he has not been around long enough to know how to get out of one. Instead of sticking with his natural timing and rhythm, he fooled around until everything was out of whack."

But Jack Tighe professes to be confident that the Tigers will do a lot of watching up when Kuenn again gets on base ahead of Kaline.

There'll be brighter days when the K Boys once more strike against the other side instead of being a strike on the Tigers. As a matter of fact, they have been two strikes on the Tigers. All the Battling Bengals need is a tastier K-ration.

Cunningham Strokes Grand-Slam Homer In 9th, Cards Win, 7-3

ST. LOUIS (P)—Joe Cunningham, who only hits 'em in the clutch, smashed a grand slam homer in the last of the ninth Tuesday night, boosting the St. Louis Cardinals past the New York Giants, 7-3.

Cunningham's blast was the only Cardinal hit off Ruben Gomez of the Giants in the ninth, coming after three walks.

It was the fourth straight victory for the Cards, and seventh in nine starts in the current home stand, and kept them a half-game behind front-running Milwaukee.

Larry Jackson, the winner in relief, took over for starter Lindy McDaniel in the ninth with two on and none out and stopped the Giants.

Patterson Waives Part Of Purse As Act Of Generosity

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (P)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson waived part of his $175,000 guarantee for Monday night's fight, visited battered Tommy Hurricane Jackson in the hospital and prepared to resume his training Thursday for his Aug. 22 defense at Seattle against Olympic champ Pete Rademacher.

Emil Lence, the independent promoter of Patterson's 10th round technical knockout of Jackson in the Polo Grounds, said he made a profit of "about $20,000" because of the waiving of the guarantee.

Cus D'Amato, a rugged individual whose break with the International Boxing Club, started Lence in business as an independent, said he took 40 per cent of the net receipts and radio-TV cast instead of $175,000 for personal reasons.

At a press conference attended by the promoter, the champ and his manager, Patterson said "I have faith in my manager. It must be for a good reason."

Actually Patterson's 40 per cent of the $175,000 net gate paid by 14,458 fans and the $175,000 radio-TV cash, comes to $123,859.62. D'Amato said the move that cost him and his fighter $51,140 "only appears as an act of generosity."

He didn't explain but obviously he had in mind the income tax situation and the $250,000 guarantee he is to get for the Rademacher match.

D'Amato said the Rademacher fight will not be seen on television.

"The champion of the world will not be available for home television," he said, "until there is one weekly TV show for an independent promoter."

D'Amato is a leader in the fight against Jim Norris' IBC.

Lence said he would use his profits from the show to open up some small boxing clubs immediately after Labor Day. He said he was negotiating with two networks for a weekly TV show on Tuesday night from his Eastern Parkway Arena in Brooklyn.

Patterson reported that Jackson was in his luck when he visited him at the hospital. He said Jackson, whose condition was listed as fair, sat up in bed and talked to him. Jackson is suffering from a urinary condition.

"Is Tommy still mad at you?" Patterson was asked.

"I don't think he ever was, actually," said the champ. "It was just the way his handlers built him up for the fight."

When a writer asked Patterson what he would do if he were managing the Hurricane, he said, "I would take him to the gym for a whole year and teach him how to defend himself."

Asked about Rademacher, the champ said he never had seen the amateur titleholder and knew little about him.

Rademacher, a balding 28, is a 212-pound former football player from Washington State and Grandview, Wash. He won the heavyweight crown at the Melbourne Olympics in 1956. Patterson was the middleweight (165 pounds) champ at Helsinki in 1952. He has grown up now, however, weighing 184 for Monday night's easy triumph over Jackson.

PINCH-HIT HOMER BY RON NORTHEY IN 8TH PACES PHILS TO WIN

CINCINNATI (P)—Home runs by Stan Lopata and pinch-hitter Ron Northey in the eighth inning helped power Philadelphia's Phillies to a come-from-behind 8-5 victory over Cincinnati's Redlegs Tuesday night.

The Phillies went on to add two runs in the loading bases and putting both runs across on Granny Hamner's single.

Redleg starter Joe Nuxhall was chased in the eighth after Lopata's big blow. But reliever Herschel Freeman promptly got into trouble, yielding the homer to Northey, who had just been picked up by the Phils on waivers.

All Cincinnati runs came on homers, starting with two in the second inning by outfielder Frank Robinson and catcher Smokey Burgess in the second inning that tied the score, 2-2.

Springfield Defeats Jacksonville (South) In District Finals, 5-2

Springfield scored twice in the fourth inning and added an insurance tally in the fifth frame to capture a 5-2 decision over Jacksonville (South) in the District finals Tuesday night at the Elks Little League Park.

Jacksonville scored its two runs in the first inning when Perry homered to give Jacksonville its only runs of the game off John MacKintley, who was credited with the victory.

Springfield evened the count at 2-all in the third frame on a fielder's choice and a home run by Polk. Springfield first sacker, Smith, pitched two hits.

The winners punched across two more in the fourth on two Jacksonville errors, a double two walks and a sacrifice fly to 'ice' the final outcome. The final tally was scored on a hit batsman and two errors.

Polk led hitting honors for the Springfield Dizzy Dean Little Leaguers with two hits. Paul Shelton and Terry Watts accounted for Jacksonville's two hits.

Tommy Perry, who was charged with the loss, permitted the winners only three hits, walked six and recorded three strikeouts, all in the second inning.

CHICAGO (P)—A rash of injuries have hit the College All-Star football camp and Coach Carly Lambeau was forced to call off a weekend scrimmage under game conditions.

Lambeau expressed doubt if the Stars will hold any more scrimmages before their Aug. 9 Soldier Field meeting with the New York Giants.

However, only one of the injuries is in the serious category. Mike Hudock, 220-pound center from Miami of Florida, was carried off the field in Tuesday's workout when he failed to arise after a pileup.

Trainers said Hudock suffered pulled ligaments in his right knee and might miss the game against the National Football League champions.

The other injuries include an assortment of cuts, sprains and bruises.

Cubs Quell 9th Frame Rally To Divide Pair With Dodgers, 4-3, 1-0

CHICAGO (P)—The Chicago Cubs needed two startling pitchers to snuff out a ninth inning Dodge rally to save a 4-3 win after Brooklyn rode to a 1-0 victory in the opener of Tuesday's double-header before 15,575.

Dick Drott and Don Elston took turns retiring the Dodgers in the ninth of the nightcap after Sandy Amoros opened with his sixth homer off winner Dave Hillman. Drott gave up two walks, and Elston walked around Charley Neal's sacrifice. Then Elston got Randy Jackson, on a fly, and Junior Gilliam on a grounder to shortstop Jack Littrell.

Don Newcombe was charged with the loss, his ninth, after giving up the Cubs' first three runs. Littrell doubled for the first of these in the second. Moose Moryn singled for the second in the third, and Lee Walls whacked Newcombe for his sixth homer with one out in the fifth.

The Dodgers scored first on Hillman in the fourth when Amoros singled with one out and rode home on Neal's sixth homer. The Dodgers threw out two,

Cubs at the plate in the third and packed opener to save Sal Maglie's tenth straight win over Chicago. Maglie has not lost to the Cubs since they beat him here, 5-3, Aug. 4, 1953.

The game's lone run was the result of singles by Duke Snider and Gil Hodges, Speake's fumble of Amoros' sacrifice, and Carl Furillo's sacrifice fly.

Bonus boy Moe Drabowsky, who yielded only five hits in the eighth inning, he worked and fanned 11 Dodgers during this span, drew the loss—his tenth against six victories.

BALTIMORE (P)—John Gray, making his first start in the major leagues since 1954, throttled the Baltimore Orioles on three hits while pitching the Cleveland Indians to a 6-0 victory Tuesday night.

The 29-year-old righthander, who had a 3-12 record with the old Philadelphia Athletics in 1954, was recalled from San Diego of the Pacific Coast League last Saturday after 24 years in the minors.

Gray, plagued by wildness in the past, walked only two batters and had a one-hitter going into the ninth.

Outdoor Column

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—Illinois probably will get another 70-day watering season, but back about a week from the 1956 start to benefit southern Illinois.

Illinois authorities expect to receive word next month they may choose 70 days sometime between October 1 and mid-January. Last year they picked Oct. 13 to Dec. 21.

The southern Illinois duck hunters want federal migratory game regulations arranged so the lower counties would get their 70 days about a month later than the rest of the state. They say the big duck flights come their way late in December as the season is dying.

The outlook for their petition is dim. However, the later season start is expected to give them some relief.

Illinois choice of a season runoff week later is also anticipated because the state is the second only of the states sheltering the most Mallards during the winter.

As to goose shooting in southern Illinois, Illinois is expected to issue an administrative order permitting 50 days instead of the 40 allowed last year.

The state generally goes along with the recommendations of the Mississippi Flyway Council. In a midsummer meeting, the council voted in preference of a daily hunting close at sundown rather than last year's arrangement of a half hour before sundown end. The shutdown close would benefit cornfield shooters.

Limits of four ducks in the bag daily and in possession are likely to remain.

However, Illinois refused to go along with the proposal of some Mississippi flyway states that hunters be permitted to take one Wood duck. Last year Wood duck shooting was banned. Two years ago, when the bag was one, it was permitted. Illinois asked its hunters to abstain from what was lawful because of a depleted wood duck population. Biologists say Illinois needs to rebuild its brood stock.

Jacksonville Merchants entertain Staunton tonight at Nichols Park diamond in a one-league tilt starting at 8:30 (DST). The Merchants will be out to avenge a loss to Staunton dealt the local club last season.

Dollar Dale Lady Won't Race

Ellsworth Pires, assistant superintendent of the harness races which will run Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at the Morgan County Junior Fair, is a mighty disappointed man. His Dollar Dale Lady, a wonderful two year old trotting prospect, won't race this year.

She was leading them all at Rushville in her maiden race when she pulled a tendon. It's improving, but still tender and Pires has decided that she is too good a prospect to ruin. So she'll go out to pasture for the balance of the year, with hopes that the injury will mend by next season.

But Pires is mighty jubilant about the prospects for a real racing schedule this week, although Dollar Dale Lady is out of the running.

He reports that there will be more than 70 horses here to compete for the augmented $9,000 in prizes and trophies offered this year by the fair board. This year there will be four races daily, as compared with the three offered in previous seasons.

The races will begin at 1:30 p.m. daily.

State police reported that two persons were injured in a three car accident Tuesday morning near Alexander. The accident occurred as a 1953 Mercury driven by Robert G. Fidler of Harvey, Ill., collided with the rear end of a 1953 Oldsmobile driven by Henry McClendon of Riley, Mo. The two cars then struck the rear of a third car, a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Earl Terrett of Canton, Ohio. Mr. Fidler and Mrs. Terrett both received minor injuries. Fidler was taken to the Our Saviour's hospital where he was treated for a laceration of the mouth and minor abrasions, and released.

All three cars were towed to Jacksonville garages.

HIGH LEVEL OF RADIO ACTIVITY RECORDED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A state monitoring station recorded 10 times the normal level of radioactivity in the Springfield area between July 13 and 15, the state Health Department said Tuesday.

Health officials said the level would have to increase to 1,000 times the normal reading before it would be considered "significant to the health of the population."

The department maintains a monitoring station atop the State Office Building. The station recorded continuous operation prior to the U. S. weapons testing program May 28.

NEW YORK (AP)—Retired Fleet Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey, 74, was up and around Tuesday at Doctors Hospital, where he was taken after a mild stroke.

The Navy said the World War II naval hero suffered the stroke Sunday while vacationing at Fishers Island in Long Island Sound. He was flown back to New York.

The Navy said the stroke was milder than first indicated and that Halsey's speech, originally affected by it, was virtually back to normal.

Light Tremors Continue To Rock Mexican Capital

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Two light earth shocks Tuesday brought to 64 the number of tremors that have rattled the Mexican capital since Sunday's disastrous earthquake.

The death toll remained at 52 in Mexico City and 66 for the whole country.

Some estimates of the loss ranged to 200 million pesos — 16 million dollars — but repairs and demolition of shaky structures will boost that figure.

Group Will Enter A-Test Area In Violation Of Law

NEW YORK, (AP)—The National Committee for Non-Violent Action Against Nuclear Weapons said Tuesday some of its members will deliberately violate the law Aug. 6 by walking into the nuclear test area in Nevada.

The committee said it plans to organize protests at Las Vegas, New York and other cities if possible, against what it called the senseless folly of nuclear tests.

A new test explosion is planned for Aug. 8 in Nevada.

Walking into the test area, the announcement said, "will be an act of civil disobedience against a law of the United States. It is undertaken in a spirit of prayer and from leadings of conscience."

In Washington, the Atomic Energy Commission said the public is barred from the test site, which is a "security area." To go into the test area, the AEC said, the group would have to force its way past guards which patrol the area to keep out unauthorized personnel.

A committee member said about 70 persons will assemble in Las Vegas Saturday to discuss ways to protest the explosion, which falls between the Aug. 6 anniversary date of the Hiroshima atom bomb attack and the Aug. 9 Nagasaki attack.

Plan To Launch Tiny Satellite In November

WASHINGTON (AP)—Plans are afoot to launch tiny earth satellites early in November as a test prelude to the later projected launching of the larger sized baby moon, it was learned authoritatively Tuesday.

Official sources said one or more of these smaller objects might actually get into an orbit around the earth, though for a very short time — possibly two weeks.

A source familiar with the satellite program told a reporter: "The deal is to introduce small 6.4 inch diameter satellites in some of the test vehicles rockets that are being tested for the launching of the projected larger satellite."

"The tiny objects would weigh only 4 pounds compared with the 22 pounds of the large satellite."

He said plans are to equip the tiny moons with radio equipment to allow tracking. But no other instrumentation, such as will be carried in the larger satellite, will be used, he said.

"Plans call for doing this early in November," he reported.

Order Slaughter Of Brucellosis Infected Cattle

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Compulsory testing and slaughter of Brucellosis infected cattle more than 4 months old was ordered Tuesday in 12 counties.

They are Boone, Cook, DeKalb, Kendall, Lake, LaSalle, Livingston, Macon, McHenry, Stephenson, Vermilion and Winnebago.

Brucellosis is a disease of animals which may be passed to humans. In man it is called undulant fever.

Stillman J. Stanard, state agriculture director, said he ordered the beginning of the statewide program for compulsory slaughter following a survey. It showed the 12 counties to be less than 3 per cent infected with Brucellosis. In these counties compulsory slaughtered animals would bring indemnities to owners.

State authorities said that because recovery from brucellosis in man and animals is uncertain, protection must depend upon eradicating the animal source of the disease.

Indemnities for voluntary slaughter of infected animals will be paid in other counties if federal and state rules are followed.

Some counties are below 3 per cent Stanard said, but are not included in the current order because their history of control of brucellosis has been good.

Proposed Senate Probe Of Mideast Policy Is Dropped

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposed Senate investigation of America's Middle East policy, which was big news last January, died quietly Tuesday.

On the recommendation of Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark), the special subcommittee appointed to make the inquiry decided to drop the whole thing.

These reasons were given: The size of the job, the inability to make most documents public, and adoption of the Eisenhower Middle East resolution. Under the resolution the United States pledged military and economic aid to countries threatened by communism
